

OFFICIAL NOTICE
2022 INDIANA DISTRICT CONVENTION
AND PRIVILEGE TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

The twenty-third Convention of The Indiana District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod will meet June 23-24, 2022, at the Grand Wayne Convention Center, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Convention Business

The business of the convention will include the election of officers, Board of Directors, Councils, and Committees and the consideration of reports and overtures.ⁱ

Voting Representatives

Each voting congregation of the District is entitled to have one pastor delegate and one lay delegate.ⁱⁱ Changes to Const. Art. V and XII at the 2016 Synod Convention, now ratified, remove assistant pastors from the “advisory only” list. They can therefore now be designated by their congregations to represent them at district conventions, and can be elected as voting delegates to the Synod convention. For these purposes, they are effectively treated as associate pastors have been.

Lay Delegate Deadline: March 4, 2022

The March 4, 2022 deadline enables lay delegate information to be included in the Convention Workbook and facilitates the consideration of lay delegates for Floor Committee assignments. We encourage early registration of the lay delegate so that materials can be included in the bulk mailing. Late registrations cost the district about three times as much to mail first class.

Nomination and Election of Officers, B.O.D., Councils and Committees^{iii,iv}

The following officers will be elected from the Minister of Religion – Ordained roster of the Synod:

District President
Four Regional Vice Presidents (one from each region)
Circuit Visitors (ratification of Circuit Forum selections)
District Secretary

A layman shall be elected to serve as the Treasurer.

The following board, councils and committees will have one Minister of Religion – Ordained, one Minister of Religion – Commissioned, and one lay person, from each of the four regions, to be elected at the convention:

Board of Directors	Council for Congregational Resources
Council for Congregational Outreach	Committee on Worship and Spiritual Care
Council for Congregational Services	Committee for Convention Nominations

The Committee on Constitutional Matters will have two Ministers of Religion-Ordained, two Ministers of Religion-Commissioned, and two lay members, all at large, to be elected at the convention. At least one lay member of the committee must be a lawyer.

Individuals may be nominated for these positions according to the IN District Bylaws and as noted on the nomination forms. Briefly, congregations may nominate two persons from the Minister of Religion – Ordained roster of the Synod for the office of President and two persons for the office of Vice-President from the District’s roster of Ministers of Religion – Ordained from their region. Per Synod Handbook, 5.2.2, Circuit Visitors are selected by the Circuit Forums and ratified by the district convention.^v Nominations for Secretary, Treasurer, Board of Directors, councils and committees may be made by any member of the Indiana District or an Indiana District congregation. Additional nomination forms for these offices may be printed from the IN District website.

Nominations should be sent to the District Secretary addressed to 1145 S. Barr Street, Fort Wayne, IN 46802 as early as possible. The Bylaws indicate a deadline of 60 days prior to the convention or April 22, 2022.

General Information Regarding Nominations

Nominees are to be members of voting congregations of The Indiana District, LCMS. Ministers of Religion—Ordained and Ministers of Religion—Commissioned (Teachers, Directors of Christian Education, Directors of Youth and Family Life, Deaconesses, etc.) are to be from among those listed on the roster of the Synod/District.

All members of the B.O.D., councils and committees shall be elected for three-year terms of office. The District President may be reelected without limitation to the number of terms. Regional Vice-Presidents, Circuit Visitors and all elected members of the Board of Directors (with the exception of the District President), councils and committees shall be limited to three successive three-year terms of office. Appointment to fill one-half or more of a term shall be regarded as a full term under limited tenure rules. (Handbook, 4.7.4 and 4.7.5; IN District Bylaws, 8.2.3.1 and 8.2.3.2).

Unless otherwise indicated, one Minister of Religion—Ordained, one Minister of Religion—Commissioned, and one lay person are to represent each region on each elected council and committee of the District. Vice Presidents serve as the Minister of Religion—Ordained representatives for their respective regions on the Board of Directors. No more than one person from one congregation may serve on the B.O.D. or any one council at the same time. (IN District Bylaws, 8.2.1.4)

No one, either in the Synod or in the District, or between the Synod and the District, may hold more than one elective office; or hold more than two offices, although one or both be appointive; or ever hold two offices of which one is directly responsible for the work done by the other. (Handbook, 1.5.1.2; IN District Bylaws, 13.5.3)

Incumbents who are eligible for re-election are not automatically re-nominated. They must be nominated for re-election with all appropriate forms being filed with the Nominating Committee.

Recommendations are needed for all elected positions of the District. The Committee shall prepare and present a proposed slate of candidates from among the names of persons properly recommended. The only exceptions are the offices of District President, Regional Vice Presidents, and Circuit Visitors.

Reports and Overtures

In addition to the election of officers, the principal business of a convention of the District is the consideration of reports and overtures. Overtures are recommendations in the form of proposed resolutions requesting action on the part of the convention, and they may be submitted by the following:

- Congregations*
- Circuit Forums*
- Board of Directors*
- District Conferences of Ordained and/or Commissioned Ministers*
- Faculty of an Education Institution of Synod*
- A committee established by a prior convention*

Overtures must be submitted in triplicate to the District President not later than February 24, 2022. They must be signed by two officers of the entity submitting them. Any action that would amend the District's articles or bylaws must receive prior approval of the Synod CCM, per Synod Handbook, 3.9.2.2.3. Such submissions should be made well in advance of the district convention to allow adequate time for the commission's review and response, which may involve requirements for additional changes that may, in turn, require further review. Subparagraph [b] of 3.9.2.2.3 allows for those prior-approved amendments to be modified during a convention and then adopted, subject to subsequent approval of the CCM. Should the CCM not approve the amendments as adopted, the district board of directors is empowered, after the convention and by its two-thirds vote, to modify the amendments to the satisfaction of the CCM and to adopt them. The new procedure, while it does not eliminate the requirement that the CCM give prior approval to proposed district bylaw and article changes, does provide an orderly mechanism for accommodating any changes to those proposals that might occur during the convention.

A change of name from "council" to "commission" is being proposed at convention.

Our councils are defined as both advisory and assistive (Bylaws 9.1, 10.1, 11.1), and the assistive role does not fit the definition of a council (Handbook 1.2.2[g]). No change is being proposed in the purpose of the councils themselves.

Election to a council would imply election to the commission, if the proposed name change is approved.

ⁱ 2019 Handbook District Conventions

4.2.1 Conventions of the districts shall afford opportunities for worship, nurture, inspiration, fellowship, and the communication of vital information. They are the principal legislative assemblies, which amend the district's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, consider and take action on reports and overtures, and handle appropriate appeals.

- (a) The conventions of the districts shall be governed by the bylaws adopted by the Synod for its conventions, insofar as these may be applicable.
- (b) The district convention is the instrument to receive overtures (Bylaw 3.1.6.2), including overtures and recommendations for synodwide mission and ministry emphases submitted by member congregations and adopted by a circuit forum.
- (c) Following in-depth study and discussion, the district convention shall act on the overtures and may, as determined by the convention, submit overtures to the national convention.
- (d) The district convention shall, through delegate vote, forward to the national convention a list of two or three triennial mission and ministry emphases for consideration by the national convention.
- (e) Each district may adopt other regulations, provided these are not contrary to the Constitution and Bylaws of the Synod.
- (f) The president of the district shall conduct the sessions according to accepted parliamentary rules and shall so arrange the schedule of business that the sessions do not extend beyond six business days.
- (g) Districts may, at their own discretion, provide their convention workbooks and proceedings to each district congregation, delegate and alternate, officer, board, commission, and council member by a means of electronic communication, provided that any designated recipient shall be provided a printed copy of the workbook and proceedings upon request.

4.2.2 The delegates of a voting congregation to a district convention shall be accredited.

- (a) To be entitled to vote, delegates shall return the proper credentials provided by the district secretary and signed by two of the congregation's officers, either by mailing them to the district office at a date determined by the district or by presenting them to the district secretary at the opening of the convention. - d. All officers and members of the B.O.D., councils and committees who are elected to represent a region of the District shall forfeit their position if they move outside of the region to which elected.

^{iv} Districts of Synod elect members to the Committee for [Synod] Convention Nominations on an every-other-triennium cycle. The Indiana District is included in the one-half of districts electing members for the 2022 convention. This year we will elect one lay representative and one alternate lay representative.

^v 2019 Handbook Circuit Visitors

5.2.2 The circuit visitor shall hold his position by virtue of his selection by the circuit forum and ratification by the district convention.

- (a) Circuit forums shall meet at the call of their circuit visitors to select their circuit visitors no later than the time established by the district. When in-person meetings are burdensome (e.g., geographically large circuits), a circuit may select another manner of meeting (e.g., e-meeting technologies) that is suitable and made available to all participants, taking into consideration the need to provide for an open and fair exchange of ideas and secure, private, and confidential voting.

(b) Prior to the day of the circuit forum, nominations for candidates for the office of circuit visitor may be submitted by a voting congregation of the circuit and suggested by the district president, in consultation with the praesidium of the district.

(c) Each circuit may adopt procedures and methods that will insure efficiency and accuracy, including the use of mechanical, electronic, or other methods of casting, recording, or tabulating votes. The privilege of voting shall be exercised by the representatives from each member congregation of the circuit, who shall have been selected in the manner prescribed by the congregation (Bylaw 5.3.2).

(d) All nominated pastors serving congregations and emeriti pastors whose names were nominated prior to the day of the circuit forum shall be eligible for election in accordance with section 4.3 of these Bylaws.

(1) Following presentations of pertinent information regarding each pastor as listed in Bylaw 3.12.3.6 (c) and circuit visitor responsibilities as provided hereafter in this bylaw, each voter shall submit the names of two pastors on the initial ballot.

(2) The three pastors (or more in case of a tie vote) who receive the highest number of votes in this preliminary ballot shall be placed on the next ballot. Each voter shall vote for only one candidate.

(3) Balloting shall continue with the lowest candidate being removed from each succeeding ballot until one pastor shall have received a simple majority of all votes cast, who shall be declared the nominee.

(e) Immediately following the circuit forum, the circuit visitor shall report in writing the results of the selection process to the secretary of the district in preparation for ratification by the district convention.

(f) In the event that a circuit visitor has not been selected by a circuit forum or has been selected but is no longer available to serve, thus resulting in no circuit visitor selection being included on the convention slate of circuit visitors for a circuit, the district president shall make the selection, which selection shall then be included on the convention slate of circuit visitors.

(g) The convention shall have the right to alter the slate by amendment.

(h) The convention shall then ratify the slate of circuit visitors, which ratification shall constitute election.
